Chicly crafted urban living in Galston

Secluded on a north facing parcel, this brand new residence is created with uncompromising detail. Matte black finishings and an understated palette articulate this readymade home, designed for optimal family comfort.

The kitchen is the home's centrepiece, with its Corian benches, induction cooktop, vzug ovens, integrated appliances and polished concrete island for dining. It has the ultimate home chef's luxury – a TV in the glass splashback. An expanse of full height glass separates the kitchen from the alluring inground pool, as though blended together.

A marble slow combustion fireplace warms the open plan living zone, with a cathedral ceiling enhancing the spaciousness. There is an ensuite accessible from two bedrooms while the main bathroom has an opulent Bali stone freestanding tub, all 3 bathrooms with under floor heating.
