9  4  4

One of a kind, this 3.39 acres (1.374HA) property features multiple residences in a central Hills location. Ideal for large families and multi-generational households, it includes a dual-occupancy residence plus a separate building suited to a number of uses. The main house has four bedrooms and north-facing living areas with beautiful natural views. A breezeway links it to the second house with two bedrooms, north-eastern facing living zones and its own alfresco entertaining area. The third building was the original home, in excellent condition among mature gardens.

Multiple accommodation options and abundant shedding provide exceptional potential, and there is room for a tennis court and pool to create your dream family estate. This acreage boasts a convenient setting three minutes to Round Corner, 10 minutes to Castle Towers and Rouse Hill Town Centre and future rail.
