Presenting a single level design with thoughtful touches, this custom built home brings warmth and comfort. The large open living zones are perfect for time together and there is a separate family room for time apart. Skylights illuminate the Caesarstone kitchen which is set around an island bench and hosts a 900m gas cooktop and oven. Embraced by a glass splashback, the kitchen is positioned to look to the enclosed alfresco where a wall of windows shows off the neat garden surrounds.

Dual basins feature in the main and ensuite bathrooms and the master bedroom includes a sizeable walk-in wardrobe. Children's bedrooms are well-scaled and sit in their own wing with an office or toy room. Centrally located, it's a five minute walk, bike or scooter ride to Pitt Town Public School and a few more minutes to local shops and cafes.
