Boasting exceptional street presence within a welcoming neighbourhood, this dual level residence features an abundance of living space for growing families. The versatile lower level offers multiple living areas, including a formal lounge and dining room, along with an open-plan living and family space designed for relaxed everyday moments. Stone benchtops and modern cabinetry frame the gourmet kitchen which includes a built-in pantry, modern cooking appliances and ample bench space. Glass sliders from the rear living area open to a covered alfresco space, where the manicured backyard provides a secure and inviting environment for kids and pets to play.

Upstairs, a generous rumpus room offers potential as a teenage retreat, complete with a study nook and access to the front balcony. The master suite enjoys a walk-in wardrobe and sleek ensuite, while a contemporary main
